

2003 Contributions to International Refugee Aid Agencies

Table 13 Top 20 Donors

Contribution in Millions of U.S. Dollars

United States	$ 572.3
European Commission	189.2
Japan	100.5
Sweden	86.2
United Kingdom	85.9
Netherlands	85.2
Norway	75.2
Germany	53.4
Denmark	51.9
Australia	43.9
Canada	42.1
Italy	42.1
Switzerland	32.9
Finland	20.0
Belgium	17.3
Ireland	15.1
France	14.6
Peru	9.3
Saudi Arabia	8.1
Spain	7.4

Table 14 Top 20 Donor Countries

Contribution Per Capita
in U.S. Dollars

Norway	$16.33
Luxembourg	13.01
Denmark	9.62
Sweden	9.57
Netherlands	5.26
Switzerland	4.50
Liechtenstein	4.00
Finland	3.86
Ireland	3.79
Australia	2.20
United States	1.96
Belgium	1.66
Kuwait	1.46
United Kingdom	1.45
Canada	1.33
Guinea-Bissau	0.82
Japan	0.79
Italy	0.74
Germany	0.65
New Zealand	0.48

The world's developed countries contribute most of the funding for programs that assist refugees. This page shows the amount of assistance provided during 2003 to three international agencies: UNHCR, IOM, and UNRWA. Many European countries contribute through the European Commission as well as individually. Bilateral aid and aid provided through agencies such as the World Bank and the World Food Programme that may benefit refugees, are not included.

Sources: UNHCR, IOM, and UNRWA; tabulated by USCR.